

HOFER: That's my way

Specialist Purchasing - Beverages (f/m/d)

Tasks that await me

- Support in the planning, implementation and optimization of international purchasing in the area Beer & Spirits, Chilled Juices ect.
- Participate in projects including research, preparation and follow-up of contract negotiations as well as obtaining prices and checking quotations
- Execute the procurement research independently
- Prepare and edit contracts and presentation documents
- Cooperate with international suppliers, service providers, logistics companies and IT partners
- Perform administrative tasks in the area of purchasing

My qualifications

- Completed business-oriented or natural scientific studies or commercial apprenticeship
- Professional experience in the field of purchasing or in a comparable field of activity
- SAP Ariba or SAP HANA knoweledge is an advantage
- Experienced handling of the PC (especially MS-Office tools)
- Very good knowledge of English
- Reliable, structured and independent way of working
- Excellent communication and teamwork skills
- Analytical and solution oriented thinking

Convincing offers

- Diverse and responsible field of activity within a modern, international business group
- Extensive training
- Use of mobile work devices and equipment for flexible working
- Possibility to work in home office
- Cooperation with international teams

- Relocation support (including visa/employment permit request, home search service and relocation allowance) as per the company guidelines
- Numerous further training opportunities to support personal and professional development
- Option of taking sabbatical leave for several months
- Secure and reliable employer

Remuneration

Attractive gross annual salary starting from € 45,900.- for 38.5 hours/week

Place of work

5071 Wals, Alte Bundesstraße 10

Start of work

as soon as possible

Apply

Please send your cv to welcome@jki-recruitment.de

HOFER, my employer

We are shaping the future of HOFER and ALDI SOUTH within our international holding company based in Salzburg. Together, we are coordinating the development of the business group across 4 continents and 11 countries, where we employ over 150,000 people and operate 6,300 stores. As employer, buyer, and retailer, we assume responsibility for the impacts of our business operations - for our employees, our customers, our business partners, and the environment.

Due to our global growth, we are extending our team based in Salzburg and are looking for dedicated people to help us shape our worldwide strategies and processes.